GREETINGS FROM THE STATE COMMITTEE OF PSYCHOLOGISTS

Renee Stucky, PhD, ABPP
CHAIR OF COMMITTEE

Greetings from the members of the State Committee of Psychologists. I hope that this finds you emotionally and physically well as we move into what are predicted to be the darkest months of this pandemic. I find myself thinking about courage; courage is not lack of fear, but approaching and moving forward in the face of fear and uncertainty. I tend to believe that challenges come with opportunities for growth and change; we often grow through what we go through. My hope is that we come through this with a greater sense that we are intricately interconnected and interdependent as we move into a post pandemic society. Psychology is now, more than ever, essential in the well-being and healing of our society and world. These upcoming months, as the previous months of this year, are uncharted waters, and I encourage all of us to be open to new ideas, be creative in the face of challenge, and to care for ourselves as we continue to assist others towards healing.

It's been awhile since we have had comments from the Chair and I would like to update you on changes in the Committee. First of all, I wish to recognize the previous committee chair, Dr. Sharon

Lightfoot and her outstanding leadership. Dr. Lightfoot was appointed to the state Committee in 2009 and was elected Chair of the Committee in December, 2015 and served in this role until September, 2019. Simultaneously, in her role as Chairperson, she was actively serving nationally as the President of the Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards (ASPPB), which is the national regulatory association. This important role allowed her to have her finger on the pulse of regulatory issues that are impacting our profession. Dr. Lightfoot continues to serve on SCOP as a board member from St Louis. Sharon, thank you for your dedicated service and commitment. Furthermore, about 2 years ago one of our board members, Dr. Mariann Burnett-Atwell, accepted the position of CEO of ASPPB and relocated to Atlanta, GA. Missouri is well served and well represented at the national regulatory level! Our remaining board members have also provided years of dedicated service. Dr. Patrick Maloney from St Louis has served on the board since July, 2009. He serves as the chair of the disciplinary sub-committee. Dr. Mark Skrade, board member from Springfield has served on SCOP since August, 2009 and has functioned as the chair of the licensure sub-committee. Dr. Nancy O'Reilly, board member from Springfield, has served on the board since October, 2009. Unfortunately, about two years ago, we lost our public member, Dr. Blake Naughton from Columbia. Dr. Naughton, who has a doctorate in education, was an exceptional public member and we were sad to see him leave us due to his increasing professional demands and a relocation to Colorado. To date, the public member seat remains vacant. I would be remiss to leave this topic without giving shout outs to Pam Groose, the SCOP Executive Director and her staff. Missouri is lucky to have such an effective and user-friendly board staff. Those of you who have been or are also licensed in other states know this to be true.

SCOP has been keeping abreast of several national and state related training and practice issues which are impacting the practice of psychology. One such issue is PSYPACT, which is an interstate compact designed to facilitate the practice of telepsychology across states for licensed psychologists. One positive aspect of the pandemic is the increasing push for telehealth services. Insurance companies, who have previously been slow to warm to the idea, in the midst of the pandemic rapidly opened up access. To practice telepsychology under the authority of PSYPACT, you will need to apply for and obtain an E. Passport from the ASPPB and apply for and obtain an Authority to Practice Interjurisdictional Telepsychology (APIT) from the PSYPACT commission. ASPPB was granted monies to be able to waive the typically $400 application fee and it is now free for all licensed MO psychologists through the ASPPB website.

GREETINGS CONTINUED

A second important issue that SCOP is monitoring is the roll out of the new EPPP2, which has sparked much discussion across the profession. I have heard it explained that the EPPP is the “what” of our profession and the EPPP2 is the “how” of our profession. Measuring basic working competency is important for our profession as we are the only doctoral level health care provider that does not currently measure competency for incoming licensees. It is important that Psychology can differentiate itself from other mental health providers and measuring practical competency provides an avenue of distinction. The SCOP Board is aware that there are questions and concerns about the adoption of the EPPP2 and we invite you to our open board meetings to discuss this further.

I want to remind everyone that when you receive e-mail messages via GovDelivery, those messages contain important communications from the SCOP office so please take the time to open and read those messages. You will soon be made aware of proposed revisions to some of the rules, look over the changes and submit any comments you might have in favor of or in opposition to the proposed changes.

On a final note, the Board has had several MO licensees contact us to inquire about the SCOP sponsored Ethics workshops that have been annually provided free of charge to all Missouri licensed Psychologists since 2000. Unfortunately, SCOP will no longer be allowed to offer these to Missouri psychologists due to legislation put through by the Missouri Psychological Association in 2019 which took away the ability for SCOP to use licensure funds to provide those workshops. Another piece of legislation that was passed in 2019 will now require that three (3) of the forty (40) hours of continuing education psychologists are required to obtain every two (2) years will have to be in ethics. So when you renew your license in 2021/2022 you will be asked if you have obtained the required three (3) hours of ethics.

In closing, it is definitely a time of tremendous change and uncertainty in our profession as well as our state. SCOP members and staff reiterate our goal to serve the citizens of Missouri by ensuring the competent and ethical practice of all psychologists, as well as continuing to work with psychologists seeking licensure in Missouri.

MISSION

● ● ● ●

The Missouri State Committee of Psychologists protects the public from incompetence, misconduct, gross negligence, fraud, misrepresentation or dishonesty; licenses only “qualified” professionals by examination and evaluation of minimum competency; enforces standards by implementing legislation and administrative rules; and encourages economic development and partnerships with existing small businesses.

COVID-19

Not that long ago, most of us had never heard of COVID-19. Today, however, COVID-19 is a household word, and we must be mindful of the possibility of sharing a sometimes life-threatening disease with friends and family, and with clients and co-workers. The decisions faced today are unprecedented and unsettling. As you do your best to make decisions that are best for your families and your communities, know that we here at the State Committee of Psychologists office are doing the same thing. Whether we are working in the office or working remotely from home, we are doing our best to continue to serve you and the citizens of Missouri. Please do not hesitate to contact us if there is something we can do to make this challenging time a little less chaotic.

YOU CAN BANK ON IT

We here at the State Committee of Psychologists answer many calls from psychologists trying to locate copies of transcripts, post-doctoral supervision documentation, exam scores, or other long-forgotten paperwork needed when applying for licensure in another state, National Registry, or PSYPACT E Passports. It is no simple task for you to locate all those documents, especially if it's been several years since you were licensed, but it can be. Did you know that you have the opportunity to electronically "bank" those important documents for safe-keeping and ease of access? ASPPB Credentials Bank is one place you can bank those important credentials. Visit <https://www.asppb.net/page/TheBank> for more information.

PSYPACT

If you're not familiar with PSYPACT, you may be missing out on a great opportunity. PSYPACT is an interstate compact which allows psychologists from member states the authority to practice telepsychology and/or temporary face-to-face sessions across state lines in all other member states. Missouri is one of 15 member states, and several other states are currently in the legislative process.

As a psychologist in a PSYPACT member state, you may apply for an E Passport to practice telepsychology and/or an Interjurisdictional Practice Certificate (IPC) for temporary in-person practice. If this is something you might be interested in, now is a great time to apply. Until December 31, 2020, ASPPB has waived the $400 application fee for the E Passport for telepsychology. For more information, visit <https://psypact.org/> or check out the PSYPACT fact sheet at https://cdn.ymaws.com/psypact.org/resource/resmgr/legislative_resources/psypact_fact_sheet_september.pdf.
